

Brooke Warren

Brooke began dancing at a young age and has attended summer dance programs at Pacific Ballet School, City Ballet, and SF Conservatory of Dance. As an active peer leader and creative force, she was named co-captain of the Menlo-Atherton Varsity Dance Team, where she choreographed routines, organized fundraisers, and helped to produce a year-end dance concert. Brooke also worked as a counselor at the Boys & Girls Club, assisted with classes at BADS, and is a member teacher of Dance Masters of California. She currently dances with Released Contemporary Dance Company while studying Native American studies with a pre-med concentration at UC Davis ('19).

