

Emma Dulski

In addition to being a passionate and creative dancer, during Emma's time on Acuity, she choreographed multiple dances for the team and worked as a lyrical teacher at BADS.

Emma spent her summers continuing her dance training at intensive programs including San Francisco Conservatory of Dance, Ballet West, American Ballet Theater, and Joffrey Ballet School. In addition, Emma held the title of Miss Dance of California 2017 and placed as a top ten finalist at nationals. Her artistic and creative abilities extend beyond dance as a designer and calligrapher; in high school, she led a team of student engineers to design an anxiety-reducing stress ball, created a font, and designed Zazzle merchandise. She currently attends Swarthmore College ('22) and is pursuing a degree in Peace and Conflict studies.
