

Evy Vaughan

When her love of musical theatre and dance drew her to New York City, Evy elected to delve into the commercial dance BFA program at Pace University ('18), where she continues to train in ballet, contemporary, tap, jazz, acting, and more. Her theatre accolades include Silence (Renee Parker), In The Heights (Ensemble), Legally Blonde (Brooke Wyndham), and The Sound of Music (Liesl). She has attended a diverse range of intensives and conventions over the past years, from Ballet West to Steps on Broadway to Dance Masters of America (Teen Miss Dance of California 2010). Evy was also recognized for her talents in 2014 when she was named a Beach Blanket Babylon Scholarship Dance Finalist and received a Tremaine Dance Convention scholarship the same year. In addition to being a committed musical theatre student, Evy dedicates time to minoring in biology and teaching pre-schoolers.

