

Kelly Warren

Kelly currently attends Vanderbilt University ('22) where she studies education and dances on Vanderbilt's dance team. During her time on Acuity, Kelly combined her love of dance with her passion to educate others working as an assistant at BADS as well as a dance assistant at the Boys & Girls Club. She spent her summers in high school furthering her study of dance at programs including San Francisco Conservatory of Dance, Central Pennsylvania Youth Ballet, and Ballet San Jose. Kelly also has received numerous awards including Miss Dance of California 2018 and was a finalist for the Beach Blanket Babylon Scholarship for the Arts. Outside of dance, Kelly has worked as a mentor at the Multicultural Institute, a peer tutor at the Boys & Girls club, and a counselor at San Carlos Youth Center.

